

Ada knew better then to bother me when I drink.

She was lazy..or I just thought so.

I felt left behind but my drinking clouded my mind.I felt i do not have a choice.I wanted to provide for kids but I also knew I am not capable of better..

I felt something for an attractive coworker but did nothing.

I wanted to do right thing and raise kids.I felt that is it for me.

I also felt sickened with politics and whole situation in the world.

It was easy to give up..so I did.

My daughter gave me a dog.Husku.Demanding one...To my suprise...dog made me happy.

I still drunk but less.

I felt life sucks..nobody was there for me but I was not sure or just was unsure to say it.It was not manly.

Thing to say.

I am drunk now. Listening to music and playing endless games on chess.com.

Mostly losing. Also playing some cell phone games.

Just to let time pass.

News were not good.

Wars and corruption.

Young people trying to say what is wrong...not having a chance.

Accepting my situation.

Listening to Dimash and Lara Fabian. Some relief.

Those girls who ignored me as I am old, married and not attractive ..always mentioned that they are going to some popular singer concert...Never understanding that. Wish them best.

Felt alone...found relief in helping others as it was easier than to help myself.

Smoking alone on the bench behind the office.

Last time I did I wanted a client to be my friend. She reported me and I got licence on probation.

I was too friendly even amorous. She smoke pot a lot. I wanted to help but broke rules.

It was hard to admit I was wrong.

Alcohol always helped.

I now listen to serbian folk music.

When sober I go to you tube and listen to Noam Chomsky and J Sachs.

I also watch Democracy now.

They tell the truth but it makes me very depressed.

What I learn I can not forget.

People are dying here in Chicago, in Palestine and in Ukraine and everywhere. I just watch.

I wish I can forget what i know.

I can not.

Mayby Bukovski was right but we are all pussies and who cares.

Trump said he will not have another debate.

Really who cares when there is not 3 party candidate.

Do not understand why is Ralf Nader not here.How stupid we are.

Best people we have are marginalized. Nobody knows or care.

I work 4 days a week.Its is 3am and room is silent.I drink and like it.People work tom as it is Friday.

I thank God I am not .One client said he slept with 4 diff women in 4 days.He is slim and has blue eyes.I said great and also asked him what are his feelings.he staryed to cry.Was jelous and sorry for him. Never saw him again.

I never passed psychiatry Boards. When I was third year of residency my salary was 38 k. Before taxes. My Father in Law was sick and had CABG..we did not have money for air fare. I started moonlighting. We had one consolidation loan and full credit cards..first psychiatrist gave me 33 % of what I billed for him and he was unprofessional. I quit with him and find guy who gave 50 %.

Instead of being Chief resident or studying for Boards I worked weekends and doubled my salary.

I worked in nursing Homes.

When done with residency I stayed there and earned a lot. Family wanted me to travel .We traveled a lot.

In 2010 I wanted to pass the Boards but something else came up...

I never passed.

I worked in 8 nursing Homes and earned 450 k per year for few years. Then in 2009 OBAMACARE came to be.

I was burning out, working 7 days per week. I Billed people who passed away..between 2012 and 2014 .26 of them.

My billing was outsourced and I was not aware..They send me a letter that I am to be 3 years forbidden to bill Medicare.

I worked for free for 3 more months just to continue care for my clients and did not billed. I had an Attorney to explain that we did mistake and proposed a plan to avoid mistakes in the future but it did not helped.

After 3 months I got no approval to continue with Medicare.

I brushed my skills in Child psych and I found place that billed other insurance but Medicare. Next 10 years I worked for 3 places and treated kiddos 5 and older and adults.

Thrn Il Department of Licencure ,due to Medicare thing, gave me a reprimand and some monetary find and 20 hours of CME. I passed that in 2018.

I worked now for almost 10 years with commecial insurers but as mentioned above client reported me. My Att. Settled that I can practice with no restriction.

I am now on inlimited probation,paid monetary fine,passed EBAS test and had 12 months of probation.

Multiple insurers dropped me.

Now I am fighting to stay with them.

Some clients left, some stayed.

Today

.I am 9 months into oractice monitoring and fighting to stay with insurance companies...

Hope this helps my colleagues...psychiatrist...
